Tri-Town Launches New Website!

After months of planning and development, we are excited to announce the launching of Tri-Town's completely new and very comprehensive website. The new look and user-friendly navigation process offers users easy access to a wealth of information on our services, programs, and staff.

This will be a dynamic website which will be updated regularly to bring you the latest news from Tri-Town including information about new programs, upcoming events and job opportunities. There is also an extensive resource page that links you to related agency and organization websites.

Please visit www.tri-town.org and start browsing. Our thanks to Embolden Design, Dawson Communications, Tri-Town's Chief Operating Office Brenda Dowlashahi, Information & Technology Director Matthew Mitson and the entire staff for their tireless efforts in bringing the new Tri-Town site to life!
