

Announcing YouthLinks, a program linking youth between the ages of 14 and 21 with employers, schools, colleges, technical schools, trade associations, and other community-based organizations.

Employers:

Look to YouthLinks for reliable young workers with the social and job skills needed to be dependable and successful on the job. We provide training, job coaching, screening and placement services to fill your need for quality young workers.

Youth Ages 14-21:

Look to YouthLinks to guide you through the transition through school and into post-secondary and other education, training, and employment through these and other free services:

- Intake, Assessment and Goal Setting
- Basic Education, Remediation, and Tutoring
- GED and ESOL Classes
- Work Readiness Credential
- Occupational Skills Development
- Work Experience and Job Placement
- Career Exploration
- Adult Mentoring
- Leadership Development
- Job Coaching/Case Management

Tri-Town Community Action Agency
Office Hours: 9 AM to 4 PM Weekdays

Main Office

1126 Hartford Avenue
Johnston, Rhode Island 02919

Employers and Young People, call for more information!

Jennifer Cornwell,
Tri-Town Program Coordinator
351-2750 ext. 1135

YouthLinks is a partnership of Tri-Town and South County Community Action Agencies and is funded by the Workforce Partnership of Greater RI.

Tri-Town
Community Action Agency
Helping people. Changing lives.

We are pleased to present our new logo, representing our mission to help adults, children and youth overcome obstacles to self-sufficiency and to achieve success in their lives. The triangle suggests moving upward while the waving lines moving outward from the triangle represent the flow of life from the negative to the positive.